

U.P. Trappers Announce Raffle Winners

The winner in the Beaver Hat Drawing was Lionel Lauren of Vulcan and the winners in the gun and cash raffle are as follows: Jim Vivio of Vulcan won the Savage .204 Ruger, Carroll Whitens of Hermansville won the Savage 30-06, Robert Torino of Ishpeming won the Mossberg 20 gauge shotgun, Norman Peterson of Cedar River won the 17 Caliber Savage, Robert Torino of Ishpeming won the 50 Caliber muzzleloader, Jim Absolon of Elgin Illinois won the PSE Compound Bow Package, Jim Engel of Chassell won the $200.00 cash donated by Coleman Engineering or Iron Mountain, Larry Cole of Perkins won the $100.00 cash donated by Gunner's Welding of Vulcan, Jeff Backhaus of Amberg Wisconsin won the $100.00 cash donated by U.P. Trappers District 1, Jim Absolon of Elgin Illinois won the $100.00 cash donated by U.P. Trappers District 3, Paul Godward of Pelkie won the $100.00 cash donated by U.P. Trappers District 5, Dave Basal of Marquette won the $50.00 cash donated by Dennis Girardi of Vulcan, Roger Gustafson of Bruce Crossing won the $50.00 cash donated by Bill Pipp of Vulcan, and Daniel Beaudou of Daggett won the $50.00 cash donated by Dave Basal of Marquette.

The Upper Peninsula Trappers Association, Inc. would like to thank everyone who bought and/or sold tickets for this successful fundraiser. Also they would like to thank those individuals, districts, and businesses that contributed cash to supplement the guns and the compound bow provided by the association. The generous prizes helped make this raffle a huge success.